At this time, to be considered on track to meet the end of the year first grade standards in reading, your child should have passed Unit __________. The last Unit your child passed was __________. Your child needs to do the following things:

* Read their Read Well homework every night.
* Practice their sight words consistently.
* Spend time reading stories for enjoyment.
* Spend time talking about what you have read together or with another person.